

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT TACOMA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

v.

JAMES A. RAYMER,
Defendant.

Case No. CR21-5254-BHS

DETENTION ORDER

THE COURT, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Sect. 3142, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and/or the safety of any other person and the community.

This finding is based on 1) the nature and circumstances of the offense(s) charged, including whether the offense is a crime of violence or involves a narcotic drug; 2) the weight of the evidence against the person; 3) the history and characteristics of the person including those set forth in 18 U.S.C. Sect. 3142(g)(3)(A)(B); and 4) the nature and seriousness of the danger release would impose to any person or the community.

Findings of Fact/ Statement of Reasons for Detention

Presumptive Reasons/Unrebutted:

- ☐ Conviction of a Federal offense involving a crime of violence. 18 U.S.C. Sect. 3142(f)(A)

- ☐ Convictions of two or more offenses described in subparagraphs (A) through (C) of 18 U.S.C. Sect. 3142(f)(1) of two or more State or local offenses that would have been offenses described in said subparagraphs if a circumstance giving rise to Federal jurisdiction had existed, or a combination of such offenses.

Safety Reasons:

- ☐ Defendant is currently on probation/supervision resulting from a prior offense.

In addition, Defendant has been found guilty of an offense in a case described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of subsection (f)(1) of 18 USC section 3142 and is awaiting imposition or execution of sentence. Under 18 USC section 3143 the Defendant must be detained unless the Court finds there is a substantial likelihood that a motion for acquittal or new trial will be granted OR an attorney for the Government has recommended that no sentence of imprisonment be imposed on the person. The record before the Court is insufficient for the Court to make either of these findings and therefore the Defendant must be detained.

- The defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel.
